Michigan Solon Declares War Against Ohio

WYANDOTTE, Mich. (AP)—Michigan's mighty militia may march on Ohio to capture Toledo and other hamlets north of the 41st parallel, says a state senator who has declared war on the Buckeye State.

Sen. John McCauley, D-Wyandotte, declared war Thursday because of "nefarious demands by a group of Toledo businessmen and brigands" who want $11 billion from the Wolverine State in war reparations from the 1835-36 Michigan-Ohio war over Toledo which was fought over an apparent drawing error by a map-maker.

That war cost one mule its life, a soldier a cut finger and a Toledo farmer his cabbage patch.

Congress and the U.S. Supreme Court finally ruled that Toledo is part of Ohio, a decision some chauvinistic Michiganders applauded.

McCauley—who recently helped a Roseville, Mich., girl fight a court order to get rid of her pet chicken—says declaring war is his "senatorial prerogative since my district abuts Ohio.

"This is similar to other wars. The victors—which we clearly are—always have to go back after the holocaust to reeducate and support the losers, and I'm sick of it.

"The war is in the best interests of the misplaced persons who are rightful residents of Michigan," he told The Associated Press.

"We want to lead them out of the Ohio wilderness and return them to the good life."

Ohio has not responded to the challenge, but McCauley says he's willing to take the contested Ohio lands in trade for some of Ohio's Lake Erie floodwater which keeps parts of his district wet.

"Michigan's own Henry Kissinger, Sen. Harvey Lodge, says he's willing to lead the peace talks," he added.

McCauley said several state senators who served as pilots in World War II have volunteered for the Michigan Air Force.

"We might be forced to draft some men to man the barricades, but hopefully the true Michigander spirit will bring us a volunteer army mighty enough to quash the Buckeyes—11 or 12 should do it."

McCauley's Chief of Staff is Sen. John Bowman, his roommate in Lansing and his partner in the celebrated chicken case.

Sister Mary Karl George, R.S.M., the provincial administrator of the Roman Catholic Sisters of Mercy in Michigan and Iowa, has volunteered to serve as official historian for the Michigan militia "as long as I can watch the battle through field glasses."

Sister Karl authored "The Fall of Toledo, Mich." for the State Historical Commission. It is considered the definitive work on the war.

McCauley plans to finance the campaign with contributions, and says: "The war chest is growing. We have $10.25 already, and I expect $37.28 by Sunday."

McCauley also wants the legislature to declare the cardinal, the Ohio State Bird, a pest in Michigan.

Skyjackers

To Be Paid $50,000

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two young hijackers, 22 passengers and a fresh crew of seven took off from Aruba bound for Lima, Peru, early today. The owner of the Colombian plane, SAM airlines, said it had forked over $50,000 in return for a promise that everyone aboard would be freed and the plane abandoned at the next stop.

Eighty-nine persons were aboard the plane when it was hijacked Wednesday, but all the women and children were set free, 11 men escaped Thursday and 9 more were released early today.

The two men ordered the plane flown to Aruba on Wednesday and threatened to blow it and the passengers up if they did not get $200,000 and the release of 140 leftists from Colombian jails.

The Colombian government stood firm, however, and the hijackers abandoned their demand for the leftists' release and reduced their ransom demand.

Before dawn Thursday the two men ordered the pilot to fly to Lima. The plane remained in the air for two hours, but then returned to the Aruba airport because problems developed with the propeller lubricating system.

The plane sat under a blazing sun on the Aruba runway most of Thursday as the hijackers negotiated with SAM officials and deliberated their next move.

The hijackers then ordered the plane flown to El Salvador, but it never touched down and returned to Aruba shortly before midnight.

THE BIGGER A MAN'S HEAD--THE EASIER IT IS TO FILL HIS SHOES

Against Impeachment

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Democratic national chairman James A. Farley says he hopes there will be nothing to bring about President Nixon's impeachment.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of the present and former top officials in government are telling very different stories about their mutual connections with the Watergate scandal.

And Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., chairman of the Senate Watergate committee, says he has read secret White House documents that disclose a "Gestapo mentality" existed at the highest levels of the Nixon administration.

Ervin's comments at a news conference in Winston-Salem, N.C., Thursday were the strongest he has made about the explosive issues uncovered by the broadening Watergate investigation.

The top-secret papers he was discussing surfaced when fired White House Counsel John W. Dean III told a federal judge he had taken them from the White House. The judge gave the North Carolina senator a copy. They are a blueprint for domestic espionage, but President Nixon said the plan was never implemented because the late FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, objected to it.

"It would be a great shock to the American people" if the contents of the papers are made public, Ervin said, adding that he plans to ask the nation's intelligence agencies for their recommendations regarding release of the documents.

The Watergate committee chairman, a Democrat, said the papers detail White House plans to set up "an interagency operation to spy on Americans, especially those who disagreed with the administration."

Since the disclosure several weeks ago that the Central Intelligence Agency may have been pressed into Watergate-related service, a number of congressional watchdog committees have launched separate, secret inquiries into the activities of America's official espionage agency.

The resulting testimony has pitted former top White House aides against the highest echelons of the CIA and FBI.

As related by some of the officials themselves and by members of various committees, here are some of the conflicts that have shown up in recent sworn testimony behind closed doors:

—Gen. Robert E. Cushman Jr., former deputy director of the CIA and now commandant of the Marine Corps, said that John D. Ehrlichman asked him by phone on July 8, 1971, for CIA assistance to E. Howard Hunt, since convicted in the Watergate conspiracy.

Ehrlichman, then President Nixon's domestic-affairs adviser, said he never made the request, told Cushman so and the general deleted his name from a memo recounting the incident. Cushman said Thursday that he has since checked his records and reaffirmed that Ehrlichman was the caller, adding: "I do not regard Mr. Ehrlichman's position and mine as being necessarily contradictory."

—Ehrlichman, presidential chief of staff H.R. Haldeman, CIA Director Richard Helms and Helms's deputy, Army Lt. Gen. Vernon A. Walters, met at the White House on June 23, 1972, to discuss the CIA and the break-in six days earlier at Democratic headquarters in the Watergate.

Helms and Walters said the CIA wasn't involved in Watergate and the FBI's investigation of the incident wouldn't hurt the agency or compromise any of its other covert activities.

Walters said the White House officials, since resigned, sent him to see acting FBI Director L. Patrick Gray III to tell Gray the FBI's Watergate-related investigation of a Mexican money deal could jeopardize CIA operations.

Ehrlichman said Helms and Walters didn't give "a flat assurance" that the CIA wouldn't be hurt by the FBI probe.

Haldeman said there was "no intent or desire to impede or cover up any aspect of the Watergate investigation itself."

—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of one of the subcommittees looking into the matter, said Haldeman and Ehrlichman were in substantial agreement with each other but their accounts were in "serious conflict" with the Helms, Walters and Gray versions of the White House meeting and subsequent Gray-Walters encounter.

—McClellan's counterpart on the other side of Congress, Rep. Lucien D. Nedzi, D-Mich., said: "We have two versions under oath that are not consistent." He called for a Justice Department review of the testimony, which could lead to filing of perjury charges against one or more of the congressional witnesses.

—Both Ehrlichman and Haldeman blamed Dean for reported efforts to get the CIA involved in the scandal. Dean has said a move is under way to discredit him before his testimony exposes other top people involved.

Experts Doubt Viet Peace Near

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some American diplomatic and intelligence experts are skeptical about Henry A. Kissinger's optimism over prospects of a meaningful cease-fire in Indochina.

The main point of concern at the moment is the reappearance of major North Vietnamese tank forces in at least two areas of South Vietnam in recent days.

One intelligence source said a complete North Vietnamese tank regiment has infiltrated through the demilitarized zone into the area around Hue in Military Region I. He said the better part of a second tank regiment has been reported in the same area. That totals more than 300 tanks and other heavy armored vehicles.

He noted there was another infusion of armor last month down the Ho Chi Minh trail into South Vietnam along the border with Cambodia.

Twister Hits In Florida; Several Hurt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fair skies and mild temperatures favored most of the nation today, but isolated thunderstorms were scattered from California to the Rockies, from the southern Plains to the south Atlantic coast and over the Great Lakes region.

A tornado touched down near Arcadia, Fla., Thursday night, causing several injuries and destroying a house. Another twister was sighted near Muskegon, Mich.; and high winds damaged parts of Lewisburg, Tenn.

The National Weather Service said there have been more tornadoes so far this year than in the first five months of any previous year. More than 700 have been reported with a month left in the tornado season.

The weather service also announced that the hurricane season opened today and continues through November. The first storms will be named Alice, Belinda and Christina.

More than 2½ inches of rain drenched Houston, Tex., Thursday evening. Thunderstorms stirred up dust and sand in the Southwest, and large hail pounded Tonto Hills, Ariz.

The official weather station in Phoenix, Ariz., registered one-tenth of an inch of rain Thursday, the greatest rainfall there on that date in 75 years. But in West Phoenix, more than 2.5 inches fell, causing local flooding.

This bold move indicates Hanoi is very confident, these officials say, since such an operation requires moving sophisticated equipment far from supply bases.

They add it also means Hanoi is preparing to launch an offensive if new attempts fail to make the Jan. 27 cease-fire truly work.

Kissinger will meet in Paris Wednesday with special North Vietnamese negotiator Le Duc Tho in the second round of the latest effort to implement the original cease-fire.

Kissinger said after returning from the first session last week that he expected to reach "new understandings" next week on implementing the Jan. 27 agreement.

When asked about the national-security adviser's optimism, the sources said they "wished they could share" Kissinger's view, but they knew of nothing to substantiate his assessment.

The doubters also pointed out that Kissinger was optimistic about the chances of the original agreement to end the fighting. Instead, the combat level has stayed high throughout most of the post-cessate-fire period.

Kissinger also predicted a quick cease-fire in Cambodia, and that has never come close to fulfillment, they said.

Another source also indicated recently captured enemy documents may have been planted to fool South Vietnam and the United States. These documents and other intelligence information indicated Hanoi intends to abide by whatever new arrangement Kissinger and Tho work out.

Rain, May--Go Away

May's final day was pleasant for Roundtown and Pickaway County, marking the end of nine continuous days of rain.

May, 1973, was a wet month but, believe it or not, there was more rain in 1972, although not on so many days. This past month had only eight days when no rainfall of any amount was recorded.

Looking back over the previous five years, it was discovered that 1969 had the driest May with less than two inches of rain. 1968 was the flood year before the drought. In those 31 days, the rain gauge collected nearly 12½ inches of precipitation, exceeding by 8½ inches the normal rainfall for this area.

In May, 1968, there were also only nine days without rain, but in one seven-day period 8.33 inches of rain was dumped from the skies, nearly 5 inches of that in just one day.

This past month ended with 4.34 inches of rainfall. Its rainiest day was a Saturday, May 19, when .79 inches fell. Rainiest day for 1973 so far was March 16, when the accumulation was .82 inches, during the flood time.

June, traditionally a drier month than its predecessor, is giving all appearances right now of allowing Roundtown a chance to dry out.

CIRCLEVILLE police have started a crackdown on persons failing to pay the automobile license tax and giving false information when applying for the license. Arrests have already been made and violators face fines from $25 to $100.

Anyone wishing to avoid prosecution should contact the Pickaway County Deputy Registrar and make the tax payment.

POTENTIAL crop yield in Pickaway County already has been seriously hurt by the rainy weather according to George Hamrick, county agent. Those farmers who do not have corn planted by the middle of next week had better consider planting soybeans instead, he reported. Soybeans may be planted until the middle of the month.

A lot of field work remains to be done. At the Pickaway County Farmers Club meeting Monday, 35 members present reported they intended to plant 10,718 acres of corn and had 6,559 acres of that planted—61 per cent completed. The same 35 members reported planned acreage in soybeans at 8,650 with 2,159 planted—25 per cent completed.

Weather

Fair and warmer today and tonight. Partly cloudy Saturday with a chance of showers. High yesterday, 70; low, 51. High today 78. Low tonight, 55. High tomorrow, 80. Chances of precipitation, 10 per cent today, 20 per cent tonight and 30 per cent tomorrow.

18-Year-Olds Bill Faces Ohio Panel Vote In Week

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A bill extending adult rights to 18-21-year-olds will head to a committee vote next Thursday with a couple of amendments that could sign its death warrant if they remain when it goes to a floor vote.

The House Judiciary Committee Thursday amended the Senate-passed measure to include the right to drink hard liquor.

At the same time it put in another amendment that would prevent them from being policemen or state highway patrolmen.

There were indications the drinking amendment may have been put in with intentions of killing the bill. The House did reject it two years ago because of that provision.

When it came through the Senate this year, Sen. Stanley Aronoff, R-8 Cincinnati, rejected floor attempts to put it back in.

"Although I am in sympathy with giving them the right to drink," he said, "the House will never buy it. We will just kill the bill."

The committee action was the highlight of the final day of the legislative week. The House in floor action passed a bill banning studded tires on Ohio highways during summer months.

The studded tire bill, which now goes to the Senate, specifically bans the tires April 1 to Nov. 1. It passed 78-8.

Rep. John Bechtold, R-26 Cincinnati, attempted to amend it to ban the tires year around. Sponsors claimed they tear up roadways.

Although the amendment had the support of the bill's main sponsor, Rep. Jerome Stano, D-7 Parma, it was defeated 49-37.

The Senate passed and sent to the Senate three bills that would:

—Permit state-chartered banks to invest in Minibanc Corp., a firm that gives loans to minority businesses. National banks within Ohio can now invest in the firm. (31-1)

—Allow the secretary of state to initially approve different brands of voting equipment, which he can do now only if the legislature has authorized that type by statute. (32-0)

—Increase from two to three years the vacation time a state or county employee can accumulate and use at the same time. (32-0)

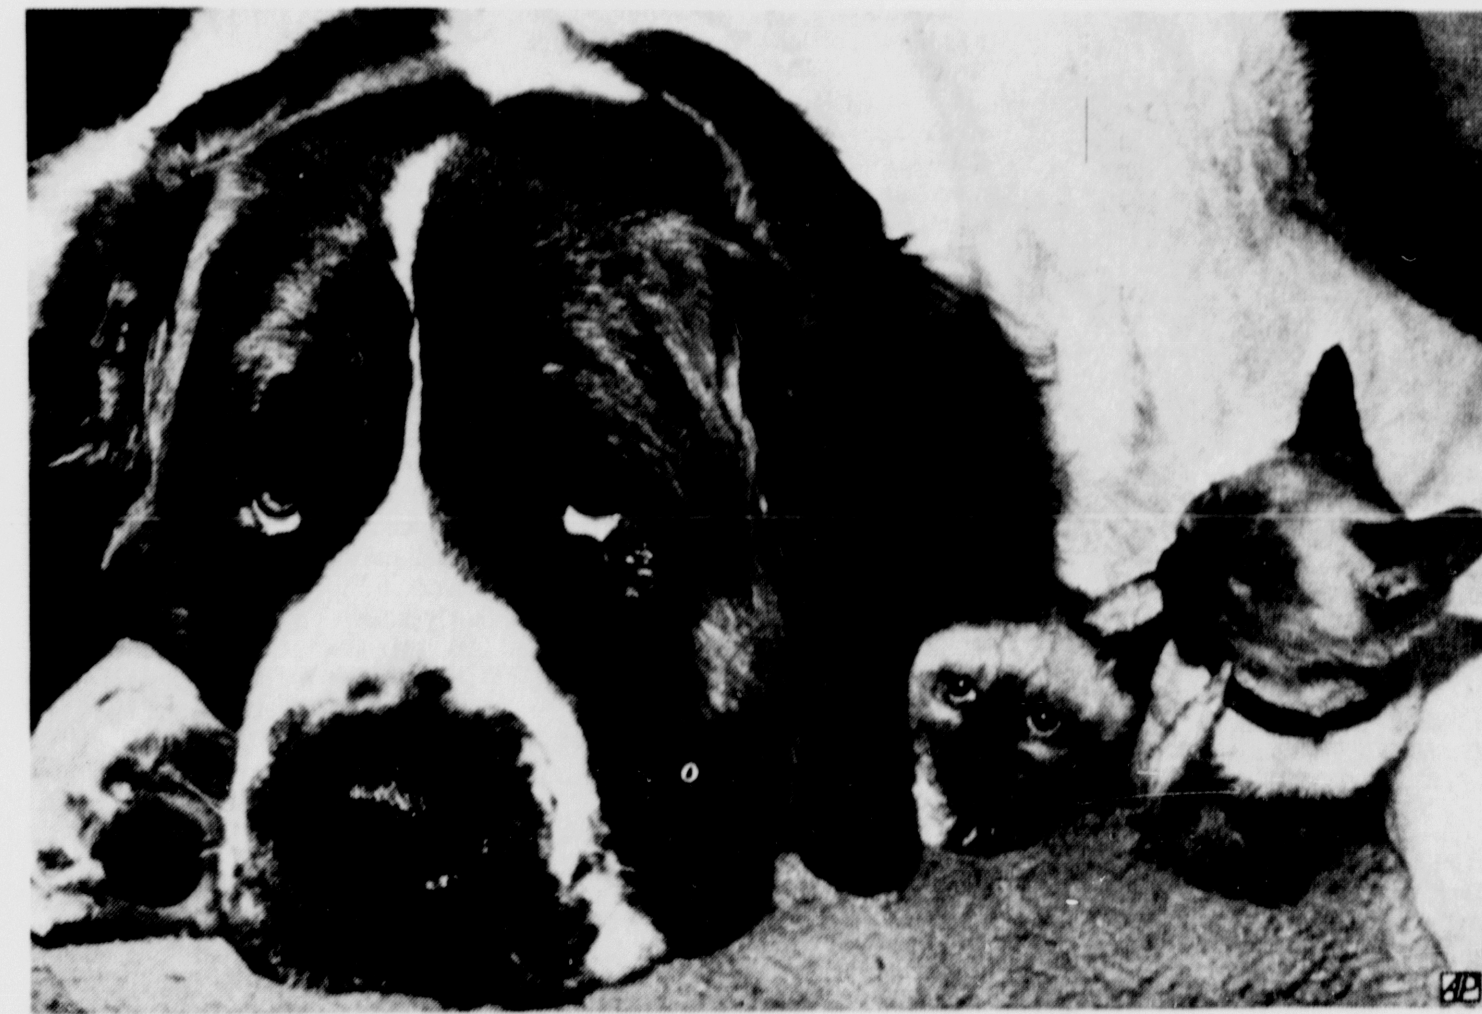

The House passed two bills already approved by the Senate and headed them to Gov. John Gilligan for signing into law.

They would:

—Permit jurors to serve in county courts even if they have served within the past 30 days.

—Permit schools to operate staggered attendance schedules if the Ohio Department of Education approves.

In other action, the House refused to concur in Senate amendments that would prohibit an auto dealer from permanently attaching his name tag to a new auto without the owner's consent.

H&R Block was the most-active issue on the Big Board, up 1/4 at 6. Some of that action came in a 24,300-share block traded at 6 1/4, up 1/4. The noon index of some 1,500 broad-based common stocks on the NYSE was down 0.38 at 55.04.

On the American Stock Exchange, prices were also lower, with Trans World Airlines warrants the most-active issue. They were down 1/4 at 10 1/4.

Indian Airlines Jet Crash Fatal To 48 Persons

NEW DELHI (AP) — As grieving relatives watched, policemen and firemen picked through the rubble of a crashed Indian Airlines Boeing 737 today searching for the remains of the last of 48 victims.

Hospitals reported that some of the 17 survivors of the crash Thursday night were suffering critical burns and other injuries.

Among the dead were several foreigners, including four Americans, three Britons and a Japanese.

Three Americans and a Japanese were reported to have survived. None had been positively identified.

By noon, 47 bodies had been recovered. Few were identifiable, officials said, but relatives of Mohan Kumaramangalam, an Indian government minister and confidant of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, positively identified his body by a pen and hearing aid.

The son of Gurnam Singh, India's high commissioner-designate to Australia, identified his father's body from a ring.

Rescue officials said the survivors were seated in the front of the aircraft, a twin-engine jet, when it crashed about three miles from New Delhi Airport one minute before it was scheduled to land.

Survivors said the 58 passengers were fastening their seat belts when the plane appeared to break apart and pitched into the earth.

The plane, Indian Airlines flight 440 from Madras, was demolished from the impact and the fire that followed.

It was unclear what caused the crash, which occurred in a driving dust and rainstorm in a rocky, desolate area about 1 1/2 miles from an upper class residential area.

The crash was the third Indian Airlines disaster in 18 months. A Fokker Friendship crashed in South India in December 1971, killing all 31 persons aboard, and another Fokker Friendship crashed on landing at New Delhi Airport last Aug. 11. Eighteen persons died in that crash.

Retiring Health Nurse Gives Final Report

Mrs. Helen Pickens, retiring Pickaway County Health Nurse, gave her final report to the Board of Health at its Tuesday meeting.

She reported that several pre-school clinics were held this month. Home calls, school visits, immunizations and assistance with clinics at Berger Hospital were reported.

For the past three months Mrs. Pickens has been training Carlene Francis, RN, to do the county health nursing service.

Dr. Frank R. Moore, county health commissioner, led the discussion on tuberculin skin testing in the county and recommended the department continue to skin test food handlers in the county.

Hugh Barnhill, environmentalist, reported to the board on his activities of the past month.

Thoburn Blaney, sanitarian, gave his monthly report to the board. He reported on the activities of the multi-county solid waste collection and disposal system steering committee of which he is a member. He also reported on the status of several nuisance cases now in the process of court action.

With the rapidly increasing number of sewage system installations in the county, the board resolved to license septic tank cleaners in the county. There will be a $10 fee for the license.

Mrs. June Gazzdik was employed by the board this year as receptionist and typist. In addition to Dr. Moore, Mrs. Pickens, Barnhill and Blaney, members of the staff present for the meeting were Effie Davis, office supervisor and Lorene Miller, chief clerk and registrar.

Board members present were Dr. Paul Fenstermaker, Richard Christensen and Charles McCray and Mrs. William Hildenbrand, president. Norman Godden was unable to attend.

"Wrongful Death" Suits Filed Over Commercial Point Shooting

John Van Sickle has filed two lawsuits claiming wrongful death and seeking damages totalling $400,000 from the accused slayer of his wife and son.

The suits, filed Thursday in Common Pleas Court, claim that Denver

Eugene Meade "intentionally and without provocation shot and killed" the woman and her son at Commercial Point Jan. 20.

Van Sickle has asked damages totalling $250,000 for the death of his wife and $150,000 for the loss of his teenage son.

In his action, Van Sickle also alleges that Meade transferred all his real estate and property interests to his wife soon after the shooting incident which would hinder Van Sickle from collecting on any judgement claim. He asks the court to nullify these transfers and find a judgement in his favor as a lien on those properties.

Supporting Acting Roles To Be Filled

Approximately 15 actors are needed to fill supporting roles in the outdoor historical drama "Tecumseh!" which will premiere June 30 in the Sugarloaf Mountain Amphitheatre north of Chillicothe.

Actors should be at least 16 years old, and over 5 feet, 10 inches tall.

"Since the actors will be performing as Indians and soldiers in some of the scenes, they should be prepared for fairly active participation," said Dr. David Weiss, director of the drama.

Also needed for supporting roles are two young girls between the ages of 9 and 14.

"The actors will be working full days from June 11 until June 30, but after that only in the evenings," Dr. Weiss noted.

Performances will run through Sept. 2, nightly except Mondays.

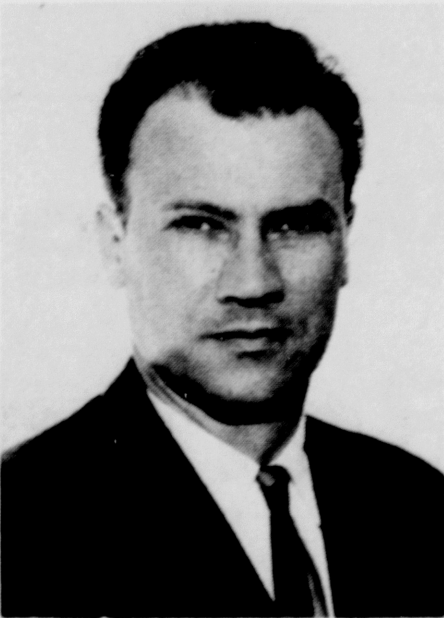

Dr. Weiss will conduct auditions for the roles in the Scioto Society office, 28 1/2 W. Second St., Chillicothe, from 10 A.M. to 12 Noon Saturday.

Deny State Workers Have New Agreement

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Joseph Sommer, acting director of the Ohio Department of Personnel, says the new association of state employees has no agreement with the state and his department will continue to recognize the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Sommer Thursday discounted a report that the new Ohio Government Employees Labor Alliance has signed a working agreement with the State Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

American Dollar Hits New Lows Across Europe

LONDON (AP) — The American dollar plunged to record lows at the opening of European exchanges today and the price of gold soared to new peaks.

Dealers said there appeared to be a massive distrust of the solidity of the dollar and selling orders were flowing in from all directions.

The rush to unload dollars was particularly heavy in Frankfurt, where the value of the American money dropped nearly five pfennigs during the first half hour.

Turmoil in the foreign exchanges spilled over into the bullion markets and sent the price to a record high of $119 dollars an ounce both in London and Zurich, the world's two biggest trading centers.

Skylab Crewmen Enjoying Leisure

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Skylab's astronauts today enjoy a luxury never before known in space — a day of leisure, which will include their first showers after a week of work in the warm space station.

It is one of three free days planned during the 28-day mission by Charles Conrad Jr., Dr. Joseph P. Kerwin and Paul J. Weitz.

Experiments are suspended for the day. Unless there is an emergency, mission control will leave them alone, except for relaying routine messages.

Experts on the ground will continue to troubleshoot Skylab's power shortage, working on procedures for one of the astronauts to take a space walk to release a stuck solar panel.

Commander Conrad hinted Thursday night there may be at least some chores to do.

"It'll be more like a field day," he radioed. "We've got an awful lot of housekeeping to do. Things are scattered all over the place, so we'll spend some time cleaning house."

Conrad said he hoped to play orbiting tourist and snap some pictures from the window during the day. He asked the control center for the map coordinates of Egypt's pyramids and African Mt. Kilimanjaro.

One thing they're looking forward to is the shower, scheduled for late afternoon. Each will lather himself, step behind a circular plastic shower curtain and use a hand-held device to spray himself with about two quarts of water.

In the weightless environment of the space station, the water droplets were

Greek Junta Abolishes Monarchy

ATHENS (AP) — Premier George Papadopoulos announced today that he was abolishing the monarchy and making Greece a presidential republic.

Papadopoulos proclaimed himself first president of the new republic in a radio broadcast to the nation.

Papadopoulos had taken over as strong man and crown regent in March 1972. He masterminded the April 1967 coup which brought the military junta to power, suspending parliamentary rule.

He said the junta made the decision to end the monarchy in a special Cabinet meeting today. A plebiscite will be held within two months to ratify the decision, he said.

Following the referendum, Greeks will vote in a general election for a new parliament by the end of 1974. It will be the first election in Greece since February 1964.

The premier said investigations showed that King Constantine was involved in the recent abortive attempt by admirals and navy officers to topple the government.

Papadopoulos accused Constantine, self-exiled in Rome since 1967, of "collaborating with foreign forces, of turning against the armed forces, of becoming a political leader and even collaborating with murderers."

The junta's decision was no surprise. For a week, the junta has been leaking rumors of its intentions to solve the monarchy issue.

Papadopoulos said that the 33-year-old king, instead of conforming to the 1968 constitution after his counter-coup failed in 1967, "cooperated with all shades of reactionary political forces despite the constant warnings of the government."

Flight controller Don Puddy said the temperatures now are expected to stabilize at about 80 degrees in two or three days. They were as high as 125 degrees until the astronauts raised a makeshift sun shade to protect an exposed section of the laboratory from the blistering rays of the sun.

ID Cards Bad Idea

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Gov. John J. Gilligan administration today ran into criticism for identification cards it handed out last week to all state employees, including legislators. "I wonder if the governor's high-priced idea man who thought up this idea is the same person who suggested closing the state parks two years ago?" asked Sen. Stanley J. Aronoff, R-8 Cincinnati.

Aronoff said the plastic cards cost Ohio taxpayers "at least $10,000" and were "useless." They are similar to gasoline credit cards in appearance. "It cannot be used to charge a dinner at a restaurant, for admission to a race track or even for identification when cashing a check," Aronoff said of the card.

He called the cards, which list the employee's name, social security number, department— and the governor's name—a "ridiculous piece of pocket pollution."

Kennedy Winner In Gallup Poll On Presidency

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — The latest Gallup Poll indicates Sen. Edward M. Kennedy would defeat John B. Connally by 14 percentage points if the 1976 election for the presidency were held today.

The poll of 1,531 adults taken May 4-6 gave the Massachusetts Democrat 50 per cent of the vote to 36 per cent for Connally, a former Texas governor and secretary of the treasury under President Nixon.

Connally, now a special adviser to the President, recently switched from the Democratic to the Republican party.

In a Gallup survey during April, Kennedy defeated Vice President Spiro T. Agnew 51 to 38 per cent.

Religious Publishing House Makes Big Splash

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Here in the old cattle country of Texas, a once-grooping newcomer has become a prodigy of the religious publishing world.

Word, Inc., is the talk of the trade. It is one of the westward firms which have risen to challenge the religious publishing predominance of the East.

"A lot of it was providential and extremely fortuitous," says Jarrell McCracken, 45, the savvy founder-president of Word, whose sales now run $11.5 million annually, exceeding the religious output of most Eastern publishers.

Besides happenstance, however, some special insights into the religious concerns of the country also have gone into the shifting balance of religious publishing and into the stream of top-sellers from the houses of the West and Midwest.

"New York is not really the place to be to know the religious pulse of the American people," McCracken said in an interview. "I don't believe you can effectively publish religion without being a part of it and being with the people who are involved in it."

That specific, avowed commitment to nurturing faith has been a hallmark of the emerging big-time religious publishers of the inland region. Some have hewed to a distinctively conservative, evangelical output, such as Zondervan Publishing House of Grand Rapids, Mich., with ballooning sales.

While Word, Inc., also stemmed from that conservative, evangelical orientation in founder McCracken, a dedicated Southern Baptist, the company has broadened its range to enlist authors of various Christian views.

"The old liberal-conservative labels are not really viable," said Floyd Thatcher, 55, the company's vice president and executive editor, a veteran in the field. "We're concerned with the entire Christian arena."

"We want to reach the guy who has turned off the church as well as the church people locked into sterile approaches to religion and also those confused about why they are in church, people searching for the real meaning of Christianity."

The firm has turned out a long line of big sellers, including: "A Taste of New Wine," by Keith Miller, 650,000 copies in hard cover now going into paperback; "A Second Touch" and "Habitat of Dragons," also by Miller, totaling 400,000 in hard cover; and "The Stork is Dead" by Charlie W. Shedd, 125,000. The high figures compare with an average book's sales of under 5,000.

A Page Of Opinion

Home Dominant Force

Some parents will voice sharp disagreement with the conclusion of an international study of the educational achievement of children, which is that the home and not the school remains the primary influence over the child.

More parents undoubtedly will accept the finding by the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement, a Stockholm-based organization, as a simple statement of the obvious.

The study was anything but simple. Over a seven-year period, 300 researchers gathered information about 258,000 students and 50,000 teachers in 20 countries. The goal was to measure educational levels and achievement.

When the study was completed, 110 million bits of information had been gathered, which must make the project one of the most comprehensive educational studies of all time. The consensus in each of the 20 countries was that national economic and social factors had a greater impact on educational performance than the schools.

What the study will mean in terms of future educational attainment is largely up to individual parents and educators to decide. Research can open a path, but it cannot force others to follow. Placing the fundamental emphasis on child development in the home helps debunk some of the myths which cloud education issues.

Why is the U.S. the patsy nation of the world? We flood the world with gift machinery (Lend-Lease stuff to the Soviet Union, etc.) and with free dollars (Marshall Plan), and take it on the chin when the balance of payments turns against us. We let our grain surplus dribble away without marked benefit to the farmer. We hold the pass against Communism in Southeast Asia, and everybody reviles us for it. And now the ecologists are turning us into the biggest patsy of all on the energy question. They are insisting that we remain a thousand per cent pure in our environmentalist approach while the other nations move smartly ahead to satisfy their own energy needs without being over-finicky about possible pollution.

My friend Anthony Harrigan, executive vice president of the Southern States Industrial Council, writes that "at one point in recent months, there were 61 nuclear power plants where construction was not permitted to continue or where operating licenses had not been granted because of protests."

Some of the protests make sense; I wouldn't want to see a nuclear plant built just north of the San Francisco Bay region, which is earthquake prone. But the effort to head off any and all atomic energy plants will surely produce a backlash. Dr. Ralph Lapp, an Nobel Prize winner, remarks that "if a worker in Illinois comes home and finds his can of beer warm and his television off, he's going to have different feelings about environmentalists. His attitude will be 'What do I care about the reproductive habits of certain fish in the Mississippi? Turn the plant on!'"

The odd thing about all this is that Japan, the nation that supposedly shivers in its collective boots whenever the word atom is mentioned, is now constructing the world's biggest nuclear power complex, along with the world's first "nuclear park." On a cliff overlooking the Pacific Ocean near Fukushima, 160 miles northeast of Tokyo, the General Electric Company is supervising the installation of six reactors that will account for 4 per cent of Japan's total energy requirements by 1976. By 1985 the Japanese will have enough nuclear power plants to generate 60 million kilowatts of electric power, or 25 per cent of the projected need.

Since Japan is now importing some 98 per cent of its oil, mainly from the distant Persian Gulf area where the Arabs have been building a tight crude oil cartel, the Japanese decision to turn to nuclear energy is politically and militarily farsighted. Assuming the plants are properly engineered for safety, they will pay off in a much cleaner environment.

At the moment the fact that General Electric is installing five boiling water reactors in Japan gives a welcome boost to the U.S. balance of trade. But the canny Japanese are learning to make their own reactors; GE has licensed ten others to be built by Japanese firms.

Dr. Edward Teller's complaint that it takes 15 years to get a nuclear energy plant going in America, with the first five years consumed in talk and the second five years given to litigation, must seem utterly incomprehensible to the Japanese or, for that matter, the British or the Dutch. Our largest nuclear complex, at Brown's Ferry, Tenn., in the TVA region, is only half as big as the Japanese complex at Fukushima. It takes only four years to authorize, erect and put into operation a nuclear power plant in Japan.

Incidentally, the Taiwanese are also going the atomic route for electrical energy. They have four of the biggest General Electric boiling water reactors in operation on an island of 15,000,000 people, which probably means that they are generating more nuclear energy per capita than any other nation in the world. With Red China championing the cause of the Arabs, Taiwan's decision to depend on the atom instead of on imported oil for energy makes political sense.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

The mother of a child in a play group insists that the new measles vaccine is not safe.

Where she got the information we don't know, but the rest of us mothers are concerned about it.

Mrs. L.T., Kan.

Dear Mrs. T.: The fear generated by misinformation and ignorance often spreads havoc.

Actually, the measles vaccine is no longer considered new; it was first used in 1963. Since then, more than 60 million doses of the live measles-virus have been administered with remarkable success.

Most people do not know that measles, when complicated, can be a serious disease.

Because of the excellent value of this vaccine, the number of deaths from measles in the United States has fallen from about 500 in 1962 to about 12 in 1971. These statistics are indeed a testimonial to the value of this, one of the safest of all vaccines.

It is true that occasionally a reaction does occur following the use of the vaccine. However, the risk is insignificant when compared to its benefits.

Don't deprive your children of the advantage of this and other recommended vaccines.

Can pollution and smog be responsible for a heart attack? Since I have been living in California I have developed pains in the chest that I did not have before I moved here two years ago.

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Bugged down in a slump that some brokers call the worst in their memory, the stock market looks around warily like a turtle poking out its head, hoping to find assurance. And all it finds is instability.

Instability in politics, in monetary affairs, culturally, financially. In Watergate, gold and dollar prices, in the prices of grain at Chicago, in the level of consumer confidence.

And so, turned in upon themselves, all brokers can do is contemplate their own miserable, unstable state of affairs, while a prolonged and long delayed reorganization of the nation's investment machinery seems stalled.

The central marketplace, a goal that would eliminate much of the self-interest and peculiarities of the individual exchanges, is still but a goal. The Securities and Exchange Commission has lost two aggressive leaders in less than a year. And at a time when Wall Street was trying to encourage confidence, another brokerage house might have to be liquidated.

Seat prices on the Big Board, which once sold for more than $500,000 and which were relied upon by many brokers for their retirement, recently dipped below $90,000. American Stock Exchange seats are selling for less than $30,000.

Prices of shares in companies that are considered essential, strong, highly reputable and with good futures have fallen to what some brokers feel are their ultimate lows, and still the customers remain unexcited.

The market went right through one of the biggest booms in years, with corporate profits soaring — and stock prices falling. And now when they say it can't get worse, the economists are talking about a 1974 recession.

And so those who sell stocks look for signs that the storms are ending. And the most welcome sign would be more selling.

Dear Mr. S.: It is generally accepted that some climatic and environmental factors have adverse effects on the respiratory and the heart and circulatory systems in the body.

Statisticians in the World Health Organization (WHO) of the United Nations have for years studied the relationship between heart attacks and unusual pollution and smog.

A number of epidemics of heart attacks seemed to occur when there was air stagnation caused by heavily polluted air. This is known as "air inversion" to meteorologists.

It is suspected that smog and air pollution put added pressure on the lungs and, secondarily, on the heart. This may be the reason for the anginal pains you describe. There are, of course, other reasons for these pains which might have occurred even if you had not moved to California.

Cigarette smoking, for example, is a severe form of local pollution. This and all other forms of air pollution are the targets of attack by students of environmental conditions who are trying so desperately to return to man his rightful heritage of clean air.

It is not sufficient for you to speculate about the cause for your chest pain. More important is the need for you to find out the exact reason for it.

If a geographical change is needed after all other causes are eliminated, you and your heart will benefit.

No one ever expects to fall asleep with a lighted cigarette in his hand.

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Maybe I'm a male chauvinist pig. Maybe I'm not a male chauvinist pig.

But whether or not I am, I'm tired of being called one by a lot of strident women who ought to be tossed into the town pond as common scolds.

A lot of men I know are also getting annoyed by being denounced as male chauvinist pigs by a pack of female haridians who wouldn't be pleased by a man if he were a cross between Sir Galahad and St. Francis.

Because of a courtesy to the fair sex learned at my mother's knee — the lesson was applied with the back end of a hairbrush — I wouldn't refer to these shrewish ladies as female chauvinist pigs.

But female they are — and chauvinists they are. The dictionary defines chauvinism as "undue partiality or attachment to an ideal or cause."

I submit that a majority of the women of America themselves recognize that some of these apostles and their claims are ridiculous, hysterical and downright laughable. Some of these female chauvinists seem to want not equality with men but outright war between the sexes. I don't think the ordinary American woman wants to be without a man or, having him, to make a war between them. The goal is one of mutual affection and respect — and fun.

But what is puzzling to most men is a new type of hybrid female emerging from the women's liberation movement.

She is the type who wants to exact from a man the gallantries of the past but at the same time insist on her right to compete with him on fully equal terms in the career field.

Even if she is trying to take his own job away from him, she expects him to Push her way through the revolving door as they enter the office building. Let her enter the elevator first. Let her get out of the elevator first. Defer to her during office conferences.

Watch her flaunt sex in a way he can't.

Let her have the first cab he can hail on a rainy day, if they leave the office at the same time.

Light her cigarettes at office functions.

Reach for the tab first if they have a business luncheon.

Yes, she is woman — he is man. Even though she is after his very bread and butter, he can't treat her as a rival. Politeness is forced on him by every tradition of the past.

What can a man do to deal with the underhanded tactics of this new hybrid type of woman he now confronts more often every year?

The truth is that it is all so new to him the average man hasn't figured out yet what he can do — except to break his sword across his knee and surrender. As Socrates said, "Once woman is made equal to man, she becomes his superior."

Detention Center Eyed

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP) — An adult detention facility to serve 11 southern Ohio counties is in the planning stage here.

James Smith, Pike County commissioner, has been named to head the 11-county group seeking the detention facility.

Officials say the proposed center is needed because of the probability the rural counties won't have use of the Cincinnati Workhouse in the future.

The cost of housing prisoners at the workhouse has increased and commissioners have been advised that contracts will not be continued indefinitely with the individual counties.

Counties to be served would be Clermont, Brown, Adams, Highland, Scioto, Pike, Ross, Vinton, Jackson, Lawrence and Gallia.

Kurfess Lowers Political Sights

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Charles F. Kurfess, R-83 Perrysburg, once had his sights set on the governorship, but he has had to lower them a bit in recent years.

When he was thinking big, Kurfess was speaker of the Ohio House. His old Republican friends who helped him get the job began to consider him arrogant. So did several Democrats.

When Democrats took control of the House, 58-41, in the last legislative election, Kurfess had to go through a fight on the floor to become minority leader.

His chances for governor apparently gone, Kurfess for awhile acted as if he was shooting for GOP nomination as Attorney General next year.

Now there are reports he may drop out of the legislature and run for judge in Wood County. But, Kurfess is indicating he may still have a state race in mind.

Obviously more friendly and easy-going now that he isn't speaker, Kurfess often drops into the statehouse press room just to chat and exchange jibes. But he now does it with a smile. He used to do it with temper.

An aide has resumed delivering to newsmen a list of his speaking engagements. They include such places as Ironton, in the southeast, and Elida, in the northwest. Hardly a place for a Wood County judicial candidate to pick up support.

Ohio Democrats will try to make political hay this summer on the county fair circuit, maybe with benches and lots of ice water.

Mike Lorz, public relations man for the party's state headquarters, has been working with county chairmen on ways to improve Democratic campaign booths.

"Two things you always want at a fair are a drink of something cold and a place to sit down," says Lorz.

It's a far cry from the days of Gov. Michael DiSalle, the Democrat who hated fairs. James A. Rhodes, then his opponent, acted as if he loved him.

Gov. John J. Gilligan doesn't always look comfortable patrolling the midways, but he has apparently decided not to buck the system.

The question of what Sen. William B. Saxbe will do, his retirement or announce to seek re-election, friends believe, is much of a mystery to Saxbe as it is to them.

Saxbe has frequently changed his mind, even after privately telling friends he had chartered a different course.

But there is one thing his friends agree upon: If he announces for governor, it will mean he has obligated the Republican Party to pick up all of his expenses.

It's the play he used when he ran for the U.S. Senate, since all the other GOP hopefuls thought the opposition would be an unbeatable Frank J. Lausche.

John G. Gilligan defeated Lausche in the primary and Saxbe went on to victory. When the campaign was over, he had no campaign debts. But the party did.

Flight Pay Restoration Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senior air officers in swivel-chair jobs will lose their flight-pay rights after midnight tonight, but the Pentagon has asked Congress to restore them.

The Defense Department said it has sent two bills to the House calling for: —A temporary seven-month extension, until Dec. 31, in current flight pay for colonels, Navy captains, generals and admirals in noncombat assignments.

—A revamping of the entire flight-pay system based on an officer's years of experience in military aviation rather than on rank and length of overall service, as now.

The net effect of the new system would provide higher flight pay earlier in a pilot's military career and decrease those payments later on, ending after 25 years instead of running for a full military career of 30 years or more.

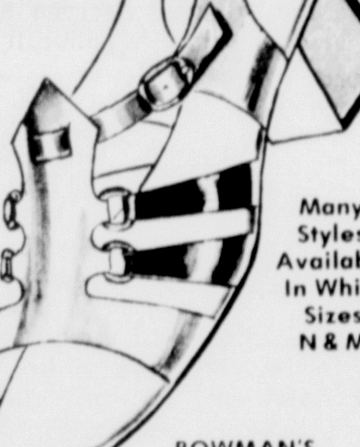

One major objective cited by the Pentagon Wednesday is to encourage younger pilots to stay in service.

MRS. STEPHEN EDWARD CARTER

Swank-Carter Vows Exchanged In Candlelight Ceremony

In a candlelight service Miss Roxanne Swank and Mr. Stephen Edward Carter exchanged wedding vows 7:30 p.m. May 4th in the Circleville Church of the Nazarene.

The Rev. William Hill performed the double ring ceremony and the Rev. Lloyd E. Davis, grandfather of the bride, was celebrant for the service of Holy Communion.

Three candelabra graced the front of the church and baskets of gladiolus and carnations were placed on the organ and piano. The pews were marked with hurricane lamps decorated with flowers and ribbons.

Mr. Tom Sipes, organist, and the Rev. Sam Stimpert and Mr. Mark Penn, vocalists, presented a program of music preceding the ceremony. Selections included "The Wedding Song," "If," "When I Fall In Love," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Let Us Break Bread Together."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle E. Swank, Route 5, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carter, Route 5.

Lighting the candles were Miss Shelly Swank, sister of the bride and Miss Cheri Melvin, a cousin of the bride. They wore floor length dresses of lavender and pink flowered voile styled with empire bodices trimmed with purple velvet ribbon. The short sleeves were trimmed with a ruffle which was repeated at the hemline. In their hair were purple and lavender flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She selected for her wedding a formal length Victorian style gown of white organza. Delicate flowers of Venice lace underlined in pale pink apple blossom satin was along the scoop neckline, waistline and encircled the deep pleated hemline of the skirt which swept into a chapel train. The bride's mantilla illusion veil, held by a crown of pink apple blossoms, fell softly to cathedral length. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink rosebuds, white daisies and carnations.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Stephen Swank, sister-in-law of the bride and maid of honor was Miss Debbie Maxson. They wore identical dresses of purple and white. The bodices were of white lace with brief puffed sleeves. The sleeves and square necklines were trimmed with purple ruffles and tiny flowers. Accenting the empire waistlines topping the full three tiered ruffled skirts trimmed in flowers was a purple satin ribbon. They wore purple picture hats trimmed with white lace ribbon falling in streamers at the back. They carried cascade bouquets of purple and pink carnations, mums and white daisies with pink streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Holbrook, Mrs. Randy Halley and Mrs. Tim Speakman. They were gowned as the honor attendants in pink and white and carried matching bouquets.

Flower girl, Miss Cassandra Crawford, cousin of the bride, was dressed as the attendants in purple and white. She wore a purple picture hat trimmed with white lace and carried a basket of rose petals. The attendant's gowns and that of the flower girl were made by the bride.

Ring bearer was Master David Beougher. He wore a white brocade jacket trimmed in black with a lavender ruffled shirt.

Serving as best man was Mr. Stephen Pusey. Ushers were Mr. Stephen Swank, brother of the bride; Mr. Steve Ruhl, Mr. Dane Conley and Mr. Stacy Carter, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a floor length blue chiffon dress with long sleeves. A ruffle trimmed the sleeves and neckline, and the waistline was accented with a wide satin ribbon forming a bow. Her corsage was of blue miniature mums.

The bridegroom's mother chose a floor length gown of yellow polyester in the A-line design with a floor length yellow and white jacket trimmed with white lace. Her corsage was of yellow miniature mums.

A reception at the L-K Restaurant followed the ceremony. Hostesses were Mrs. Dale Patterson, Mrs. Ron Melvin, Mrs. Lawrence Irvin and Miss Brenda O'Dell. Mrs. Jerry Reynolds presided at the guest book.

The bride's table held a four tiered heart shaped cake flanked with silver candelabra holding pink tapers. Also enhancing the table was an arrangement of purple and pink carnations and mums, and white daisies.

The new Mrs. Carter is a graduate of Logan Elm High School and Nationwide Beauty Academy. She is employed at M Roberts Beauty Salon.

Mr. Carter, also a graduate of Logan Elm High School, is completing his first year at the Ohio State University. The couple now resides at 213 E. Union St. in Circleville.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Westerville, Mt. Gilead, Cleveland, Kingston, Williamsport and Chillicothe, Ohio; Louisa and Louisville, Ky.; Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Bike Races
The annual bicycle races that always generates so much excitement among the young and old alike in our town is scheduled to be held this Sunday with registration beginning at 1 p.m. An adult MUST register each entrant! Precisely at 2 p.m. the familiar on your mark, get set, go will ring out and the first race will be underway.
Prior to all this the sponsors of the annual event the American Legion Post 618 will be serving "satisfying" fish to one and all. Fish fry will start at 12 noon and continue until sold out.

All this week (beginning on Memorial Day) hopeful trophy winners for the Horseshoe Tournament have been participating in the qualifying trials being held each evening at the horseshoe court located beside the Pavilion. There will be two divisions—boys 13 thru 16 and men and boys age 17 and onward.
From the qualifying trials there will be eight finalists for each division who will compete for one of three trophies to be given in each. The finalists will do "their thing" on Sunday afternoon during the bike races. This writer is not too knowledgeable about pitching horseshoes so any questions are to be asked of Ronald Beatty, chairman for the contest.

Twas a real blooper I made last week. My apologies to T-Bird who is Teresa Graffis (and not Galloway). Her injured tailbone is somewhat improved thank goodness. And Dena Galloway of the broken metatarsal bone is in a cast and using crutches. T-Bird is the only comely daughter of Big John and Sandra Sue Graffis. Dena is the lissome lass of Charley and Ethel Galloway.

The Graffis family (which also includes Monster John and Little Chuckie) were "pleasured" to have Sue's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Piper and children of Lancaster as week-end visitors.

To all my friends who had given me weekend doings to report I beg your indulgence and will do so when I have pulled myself together but as this was being written we received the shocking word of dear friend Ray Smiley's death and our every thought whirls in concern for his beloved wife Vida and his loving mother Phoebe (Mrs. Charles) Smiley. Ray and Vida had just visited with his ninety-nine year old mother on Saturday—coming down from their Dayton home. We had chatted with our friends and when the news came it just was and is unbelievable because he was so vibrantly alive and full of many plans for the summer.

On Books And Activities At The Library

Books about cops and the Mafia, both fiction and non-fiction continue to arrive. "Killer: Autobiography of a Mafia Hit Man" is an anonymously written account of a professional killer. Joey tells the details of his life, how he sets up his victims, his getaways, his fees and his reaction. "Serpico" by Peter Maas is the biography of a former New York City detective. Serpico made a reputation as a policeman who refused to go along with bribery and corruption. L. H. Whittemore has written an account of two cops, Dave Greenberg and Bob Hantz. They were nicknamed Batman and Robin because of their exploits using grappling hooks and ropes to swoop down on crooks. "The Super Cops" relates their adventures with drug pushers and the bureaucracy.
"Loopole or How to Rob a Bank" by Robert Pollock is a mystery novel about Michael Daniels, a professional London thief, who plans for months to rob an unrobable bank. In "Pandemic" by Tom Ardies, special gent Charlie Sparrows battles to stop the most deadly virus mankind has ever known—the Orsovin Pandemic. Gabe Beauchamps sets out from New York to rob the mint in San Francisco in "Gangway" by Donald Westlake and Brian Garfield.

James Joyce, author of "From Here to Eternity," has written a new novel "A Touch of Danger." Violence, sex, two murders and a surprise ending are the subjects of this suspense story which takes place on a Greek island. This will be made into a movie.

A comic triangle affair involving Stew Smackenfelt, his wife, and his very attractive mother-in-law is the subject of Peter De Vries' "Forever Panting."

Robert Leigh James tells of the son of a big industrial man who becomes disenchanted with the pursuit of material success in "Janus." He seizes control of his father's industry and tries to manage it for the greater good.

John Braine, author of "Room at the Top" writes of a best-selling English writer in his thirties in "Queen of a Distant Company." To rid himself of an influence still persisting from his youth, the writer creates a novel about his former mentor, a beautiful, brilliant, sensual older woman.

Philip Roth's "Great American Novel" is the story of Ruppert Mundys of the Patriot League, only homeless big league baseball team in America.

"Here Lies Our Sovereign Lord" by Jean Plaidy is the final volume of a trilogy of novels about King Charles II of England.

"The Politics of Lying" by David Wise presents an analysis and case histories of government deception, secrecy and misuse of power in the past decade in the United States.

"Eternal Bliss Machine" by Marcia Selingson presents a complete look at that great American institution, the wedding. It covers everything from the first contact with the caterer to the honeymoon.

Lyaal Watson, a zoologist-biologist, dispels some beliefs in the supernatural and attempts to explain the unexplainable in "Super Nature."

An assortment of new books will interest horse lovers of various ages and degrees of horsemanship. "A Horse Around the House" by Patricia Jacobson and Marcia Hayes is a horseman's guide. It provides basic information for buying and taking care of the horse with the minimum expense and the maximum riding pleasure. Chapters cover selection, diet, housing, grooming, tack, exercise, and etiquette. "First Horse: Basic Horse Care Illustrated" by Ruth Haggood covers the same subjects, but in much less detail and depth than the above mentioned title. This book will probably have more appeal for the young teenage horse owner.

"The Riding Teacher" is written by Colonel Alois Podhajsky, former Director of the Spanish Riding School in Vienna. He provides complete step by step instruction on how to teach classical equitation. While the book is primarily intended for teachers of riding, it will also prove of great value to parents or those teaching themselves to ride.

"Mustangs: A Return to the Wild" by Hope Ryden concerns the plight of America's wild horses. In the book, Hope Ryden relates her personal experiences as she studies the habits and behavior of these bands of roving horses. Beautifully illustrated with color photos.

The new superhighway is a masterpiece of engineering skill, yet you still can't see around the curve in the distance. Whatever lies beyond the bend is as much a mystery as it was when this was a single-lane road.

Today we are living in the space age and are exposed to fresh miracles with almost every passing hour. But we still can't "see around the bend" of life. We are as human as we ever were and have no way of knowing what is coming next.

Since the beginning of time, man has lived with this mystery. What keeps him going? For many, it is the knowledge that the answer to our fate lies in far more capable hands than ours. This is God's universe, after all, His creation, and we are His creatures.

True, you can't see around the bend. But you can equip yourself for life's journey by taking a single, all-important step. This step is toward the church of your choice.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Daddy's Money Oils The Skids

DEAR ABBY: I am a 19-year-old girl with a broken heart. I met Rick in college at the beginning of the year. We fell in love and planned to be married this summer. Rick is a graduate student.

My daddy is in oil and has a lot of money, but I wish we were poor because Daddy's money is what caused my problem.

When Rick went to talk to Daddy about marrying me, Daddy asked Rick to meet him in his office. Daddy had a lawyer there with some papers for Rick to sign, saying if the marriage didn't work out Rick wouldn't get any of my money I'll be getting when I turn 21.

Rick wouldn't sign anything, instead he called me up and said he didn't want any part of a family like mine, so now I am without a boy friend.

My daddy said if Rick really loved me he would have signed those papers. I told my Daddy he had no right to ask Rick to sign anything.

Please tell me what you think of all this? I don't have a mother.

CRYING MY EYES OUT
DEAR CRYING: Your father should have talked it over with you first. But if Rick gave you up just like that, your daddy could have been right. Dry your tears, honey. Rick could be back.

DEAR ABBY: Because my husband and I are unable to have children of our own, we applied as foster parents through our state welfare department.

Our first child was a teenager, fresh out of a girls correctional institution. It was a frustrating experience for us and for her, too. After admitting our failure, the caseworker removed her from our care and gave us another foster child. Since then, we have had many, mostly teenagers. Many we've helped. A few we have not, but those we've helped have more than compensated for the others.

Abby, you wouldn't believe the number of friends and relatives who ask us: "Why do you take in those damaged kids who have been abused and kicked around and taught to lie and cheat? If they were your OWN, you'd have to put up with them, but you're crazy to ask for unnecessary headaches. Can you really love those kids?"

Our reply: "Most of our children are just like your children, with one exception. Our children have been denied the love and understanding of their natural parents. We have tried to provide them with that love and understanding. If you and your spouse wanted to suddenly die, and neither friend nor relatives wanted to take on 'unnecessary headaches,' what would happen to your children? I guarantee you, we could love them as easily as we love the children we now have."

What else can we say, Abby?

FOSTER PARENTS
DEAR PARENTS: Nothing. You've said it all. And beautifully.

DEAR ABBY: Recently my wife and I went to the office of a physician by appointment. It was our first visit there. It was a nice morning, and on entering the waiting room I said:

No Bargains In Sirloin Steaks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sirloin steak is not a bargain anywhere in the world these days, except in South America where it sells for 74 cents a pound in Buenos Aires and 82 cents in Brasilia, according to U.S. supermarket watchers overseas.

Further, the Agriculture department says, food prices generally appear to be climbing most of the world's capital cities, including here. A survey, made on May 2, was published today by the department's Foreign Agricultural Service.

The report updated a similar survey made of meat and some other food items last March. According to the latest information, meat prices have continued to climb this spring.

Sirloin steak, one of the most popular indicators, cost $1.79 per pound in Washington supermarkets in early May, up 10 cents from the March survey price. In Tokyo, where beef prices are the highest in the world, sirloin was $12.86 per pound, up from $11.90 in March.

Meat prices generally were higher in the May survey, the report said. Some prices for sirloin steak around the world included: Bonn $3.84 per pound; Brussels $2.78; Copenhagen $3.57; London $2.59; Ottawa $1.82; Paris $2.29; Rome $2.88; Stockholm $4.03 and The Hague $2.53.

Canberra, where Australian housewives have been protesting rising meat prices, sirloin steak sold at $1.66 per pound, the only capital other than Buenos Aires and Brasilia where it sold for less than here.

The survey included 14 items, ranging from sirloin and chuck roast to ham, frying chicken and bread. In 11 of the categories, shoppers in Washington were shown paying less than the median or mid-point price for all the countries.

According to the survey, for example, sirloin steak showed a median price of $2.56 per pound for all the countries, 77 cents more than in Washington, D.C.

Beef production was down to 14 per cent from April 1972, and pork was 9 per cent less, the department said.

The report said eating habits in other countries vary widely and that quality and types of meat cuts also differ by country.

Majorettes Selected For Next Band Year

By SUZI ERVIN and JANET GULICK

On May 14 majorettes were chosen for the 1973-74 band season.

The girls were asked to make up and present an original routine with music of their own choice. They were then asked to do the fight song routine and to parade march as a group. On the basis of twirling and marching abilities and on showmanship and presentation, the judges then selected the group consisting of one head majorette, a line of four majorettes, and two banner carriers.

Two juniors will be returning as senior majorettes next year: Suzi Ervin and Janet Gulick.

Suzi will be returning as head majorette. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ervin of Route 1, Ashville. She will be a senior.

Janet Gulick is the other senior majorette. She resides at Route 5, Circleville, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gulick.

Kathy Woodruff, who will be a junior next year, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodruff of Route 2, Ashville.

Kathy Null, also a junior next year, resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Null of Commercial Point.

Cindy Woodruff is also the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodruff. She will be the only freshman on the majorette squad.

Glenna Ett will serve as first alternate and banner carrier. Glenna will be a sophomore. Penny Shields, a freshman, will also serve as banner carrier next year.

Exchange Student Is Colombian

By ESTILL SALYERS

Pedro Antonio Ceballos is TV's newest exchange student. Pedro, 15, is from Barranquilla, Colombia. Pedro now lives with Rusty Williams and his family in Ringgold.

Pedro likes soccer, playing drums, ice cream, and Rice Krispies. Pedro's comment on America was, "I like the girls and everything."

Pedro knew only three words when he first arrived in America. They were "hello" and "thank you."

Pedro spent three months in Pennsylvania before he came to Ohio. He plans to stay here till the end of June or, if at all possible, he may stay for five years to further his American education.

Pedro commented that the main difference between Colombia and the United States is, "At Teays Valley the students change classes, but at Lincoln High School the teachers change classes."

Reflection On Past Year

By R. D. SNIDER
High School Principal

In reflecting upon the events of this past academic school year, I feel Teays Valley High School can be justly proud of its many accomplishments in both the curricular as well as the extra-curricular activities.

In surveying the achievements of our students in their academic subjects as measured by scholastic aptitude tests, and other tests given on a national basis, I feel our students have achieved well above average.

Underclassmen Say Goodbyes

By JODY DERRING

We, the underclassmen of Teays Valley High School, would like to say a fond farewell to all the seniors whom we have put up with ever since we got here!

You, who have the best seats in the auditorium, who have given us the fond name "rookie," and who politely shove us around the halls—you who direct us to the wrong room on the first day of school, who unset our lockers, who always manage to get the hall pass first, and who are the ones never to get caught, are the ones we will miss next year.

Especially you brothers and sisters who are always giving us a rough way to go, with whom we share our bedrooms (and our clothes), you have taught us much.

Farewell, dear seniors, whom we love so much, may life treat you better than you have treated us!

Senior Is First Team

Dave Chaffin, a senior, was named to the first team of the 1973 All-Central District baseball team as an outfielder.

Jerry Sabine, also a senior, was named Honorable Mention as a pitcher.

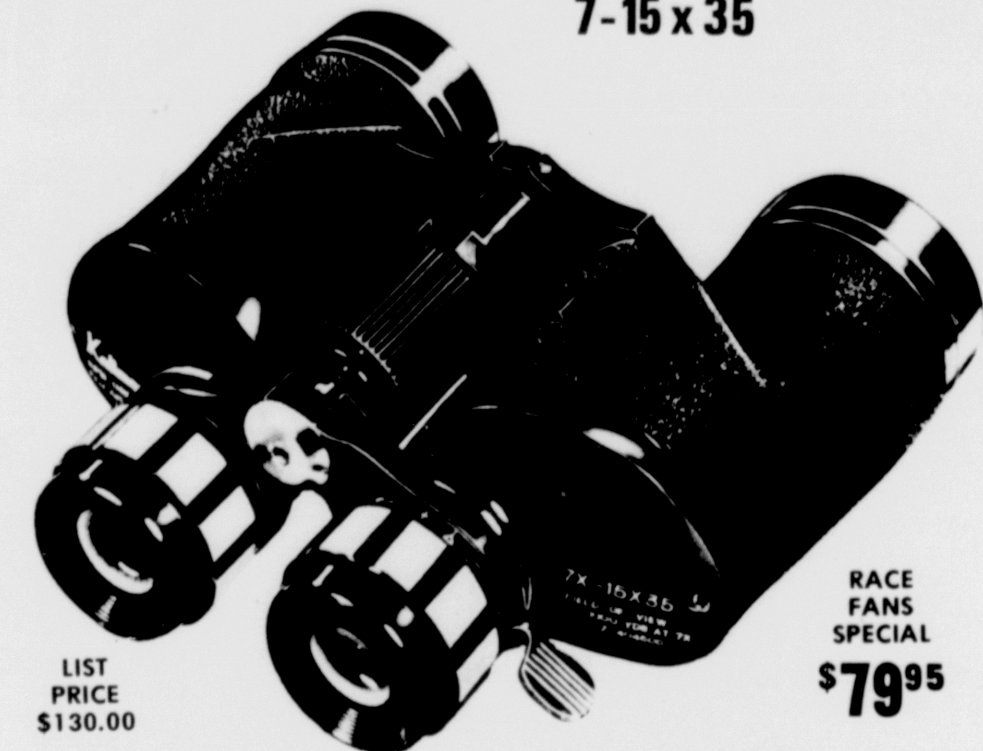

Congratulations

...to Howard Reed for placing fourth in the Central District Track Meet May 19.

...to the entire baseball squad, Bill Lewis, coach, and Roger Campbell, assistant coach, for their fine play in winning the AA Sectional by defeating Circleville 3-1. Even though they were defeated in the District Tournament 4-3 by Buckeye Valley, they proved that they were a team to reckon with! They received a trophy for winning the sectional tournament and a second trophy for Central District Tournament Runner-up.

Mark Scott Grewell, grandson of Mrs. Loring Albright, Commercial Point, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ned Grewell, (Nancy Albright) recently received a letter from President Richard Nixon.

MARK GREWELL

Mark, a third grade student at Richard Ave. school in Grove City, took part in a language arts program in which each child wrote an original story, complete with his own hand drawn illustrations.

Using a scramble word "Escape", Mark built his story around peace and the POW's returning home, and dedicated his book to President Nixon.

Mark told of how confused a little boy became when he couldn't get the scrambled word together, and then one night in Mark's dream a green frog with pointed ears revealed the secret of the scrambled word to him.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ward, Mark's teacher, sent his red cloth-bound book with white felt letters and blue stripes and stars to President Nixon.

In return President Nixon wrote a lengthy letter saying each of us has a special responsibility to our country and to ourselves to do all we can in building a structure of lasting peace.

Mrs. Walter Dill (Elsie Haughn) of Pensacola, Fla., is visiting with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Riffle, Cheri and Randy visited with relatives in West Virginia over Memorial weekend.

Willie's Dillies

By BILL McGAFFNEY
Herald Sports Editor

Once upon a time the "greatest spectacle" in the world was the pomp and ceremony of the march to the Colosseum in Rome for the frightening display of mayhem witnessed by the finely arrayed throngs to the sound of trumpets and fanfare.

Suddenly a similar fiasco reappeared this Memorial Day weekend at the Indianapolis 500. What has become an American tradition and one of the biggest sporting events of the year turned into utter disaster with racing personnel and spectators either being killed or severely injured.

Some blame the weather, the track, the drivers or the United States Auto Club for the unforgettable happenings that took place—But rather than look for something to make the scapegoat in the catastrophic event, why not look for necessary improvements to prevent such a thing happening again?

The 500 has become a top attraction in the sporting world, attested to by the huge crowds in attendance, and should continue to be so. But death and destruction can never have a place in the world of sports.

Some feel that the speedway has to be revised—We feel that this certainly has merit. The track was originally built to handle cars attempting to reach the 100-mile per hour mark. Now the cars, still running on basically the same track, are approaching the 200-mile speed mark. It's just common sense that changes will have to be made in the track as the power plants in today's cars have exceeded the capability of the track to handle them.

There is also the feeling that the drivers in their eagerness to improve their positions take unnecessary chances in their efforts to gain fame and glory.

We are not smart enough to come up with all the answers, but the people in command should be—And if they are going to save the 500—They'll have to be.

The spectators flock into the stands to see the cars race, not a parade of hearses and ambulances—Let's keep it that way!

Our "fearless" forecast—Kind of like Lanny Wadkins in the Kemper Open.

Until next time, have a nice day-be a good sport.

Morgan Homer Kills Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Joe Morgan describes himself as in a slump, but don't tell that to Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The bantam-size Cincinnati Reds'

All-Star second baseman socked a pitch for a home run Thursday night that made others pine for such troubles.

Morgan's home run, his first off

Gibson in nine major league seasons, decided a 3-2 decision and ended a Cardinals' winning streak at eight games.

But afterward the 5-foot-7 speedster called himself "not confident at the plate" and added, "I'm not swinging good."

"I didn't hit the ball real good," Morgan insisted of a 3-and-1 fast ball Gibson said was aimed at "just getting it over the plate."

"I reached for the ball," Morgan added. "I hit it more with my hands than my body. A guy goes through that at a certain time every year."

"When I hit it I thought it had a chance, but I didn't tie into it that well. I hit a couple in batting practice better, but neither one of them went out of the park."

Morgan's blast, a 360-foot drive over the right field wall, was his second damaging blow to Gibson and the Cards for the night.

The other was a high-bouncing ball off the AstroTurf that skipped over first baseman Joe Torre and went for a double with none out and Pete Rose on first in the fourth.

Gibson, 3-6, struck out Larry Stahl, who batted next, but Johnny Bench beat out a 60-foot infield roller to score Rose and Tony Perez drove a sacrifice fly.

Lou Brock homered with rookie Mike Tyson aboard to pull St. Louis to a 2-2 tie, but a later Cards bid failed when Bench's arm rifled down Tyson on an attempted sacrifice and a subsequent Brock single was wasted.

The perplexed Gibson, who yielded six hits, said he was aware Morgan's shot was his first off him for the circuit.

"You know when guys have hit home runs off you," he said. "You know also when they haven't hit them. You just don't know how many."

Benefitting from Morgan's hit was Reds' left-hander Ross Grimsley, 5-4, who pitched a seven-hitter and completed his first game since May 2.

"I was tired at the end," said Grimsley, who has a 6-0 career mark against the Cards, "but otherwise I felt good. I guess I just have it in for this club."

Indy Drivers Split Up Loot

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Gordon Johncock and the rest of the winning team in the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race will share a prize totaling $236,022.82.

It is the second largest first-place prize in the 57 years the race has been run. For the fourth straight year, the total purse topped $1 million.

But this year's $1,006,105 bonanza fell short of the 1972 total — $1,011,845. Al Unser, who wound up 20th this year, holds the individual payoff record with a $271,697 cut in 1970.

The payoff checks are being mailed because the victory dinner was canceled after the rain twice postponed the race. Johncock's victory Wednesday also was marred by bad weather with the race halted after 133 laps.

The lap money was prorated with each 2 1/2-mile lap worth about $225 to the leader. Johncock led 34 laps.

Billy Vukovich, only other driver to complete the full 133 laps, earned $97,512.82 for second place. Roger McCluskey received $60,752.82 for third, Mel Kenyon $34,487.82 for fourth and Gary Bettenhausen $37,965.82 for fifth.

Salt Walther, injured in a first-lap accident the first time the race was started Monday, won $13,962.80 for 33rd place.

Walther was listed in serious condition today at Methodist Hospital, the same hospital where driver Swede Savage was taken after his car crashed during the 58th lap Wednesday.

Savage, 26, Santa Ana, Calif., was reported in critical condition. A spokesman for his team said Savage had experienced some kidney problems, has a collapsed lung and suffered some flame inhalation.

The spokesman said extensive surgery would be needed on Savage's right hand. Savage wrote notes with his left hand Thursday, asking his mother and father what had happened, the spokesman said. He added Savage reported he didn't know what caused the crash but didn't think the wing had come off his car as listed in one report.

Meanwhile, Frankie DelRoy, submitted his resignation of chairman of the technical committee for the Indianapolis race and technical chief for the U.S. Auto Club's championship trail. But USAC officials said they were trying to persuade DelRoy to tear up his resignation.

opening the gates. Randy Hundley singled home a run during the first inning rally and added a home run in the fifth. Rick Monday also homered for the Cubs.

Jesus Alou and Tommie Agee homered for Houston.

Ronnie Morris and Jim Daft each cracked three hits while Hal McConaughy and Roger McConnell slammed homers.

NLRB Backs Rozelle Right To Levy Fines

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pro football commissioner Pete Rozelle can fine players $200 for leaving the bench during a fight on the field, says the National Labor Relations Board.

The NLRB also said in a decision Thursday that the NFL Management Council and its 26 member clubs did not violate good faith bargaining requirements in its discussions with the NFL Players Association over artificial turf in 1971.

The board agreed with the players union, however, that the installation of artificial turf is a mandatory subject of collective bargaining because it affects working conditions.

The players association filed a grievance after Rozelle fined 106 players for leaving the benches while fights were in progress on the playing field in three 1971 preseason games.

Melvin J. Welles, administrative law judge, ruled last Oct. 27 that the fines were levied illegally and that the players should have their money returned with six per cent interest.

In overruling Welles, the Board said the commissioner has always had, and still has, the authority to impose fines for conduct detrimental to professional football.

Pirates Turn Back Atlanta

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

"I throw hard and Willie Stargell swings hard," said Gary Gentry, "so if he hits the ball, it stands to reason it's going to go a long way."

Stargell hit the ball hard, and it went a long way Thursday night.

Pittsburgh's veteran slugger blasted a three-run homer against the Atlanta right-hander in the bottom of the eighth inning, spoiling an otherwise neat job by Gentry and lifting the Pirates to a 3-1 victory over the Braves.

Tribe Drops 2nd Game To Rangers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Pitching problems continued to plague the Cleveland Indians as they dropped another one to the Texas Rangers, 9-5, Thursday night.

Brent Strom was knocked out in the first inning, when the Rangers exploded for four runs, and Ray Lamb also was hit hard.

Rico Carty tagged Lamb for a two-run homer in the second inning. Another two-run uprising in the fourth chased Lamb, who was followed by Steve Mingo and Ed Farmer.

Toby Harrah contributed three hits to the 13-hit Texas attack.

One of the few bright spots for the Indians was Oscar Gamble's 4-for-4 performance, including his sixth home run and a second-inning triple.

Gamble's third hit was a single that scored John Lowenstein in the sixth, but that rally was halted when George Hendrick was called out on strikes.

One-time Indian hurler Sonny Siebert (3-3) pitched five and one-third innings for Texas and got credit for the victory. Siebert gave up six hits before he was replaced by Bill Gogolewski, who held the Tribe to two hits the rest of the way.

The Indians open a three-game weekend series in Kansas City tonight.

The homer was Stargell's 14th this season, tops in the major leagues. It also was a tape measure job, landing in the upper deck of Three Rivers Stadium, an area reached only three times before...each of those times by Stargell.

Nellie Briles, who doesn't have to worry about pitching to Stargell, earned the victory with a three-hitter.

Elsewhere in the slim National League schedule, Chicago battered Houston 16-8 and Cincinnati edged St. Louis 3-2.

Cincinnati ended St. Louis' winning streak at eight games, beating the Cardinals on a home run by Joe Morgan.

Morgan's sixth homer of the year snapped a 2-2 tie in the sixth inning to beat Bob Gibson, 3-6. He had doubled in the fourth when the reds scored their first two runs.

Lou Brock had a two-run homer for the Cardinals.

Jose Cardenal and Carmen Fanzone each drilled two-run singles in a 10-run Chicago explosion in the first inning as the Cubs blitzed Houston.

All of the Cubs runs were unearned with Doug Rader's two-out error

The Canadiens, who finished first in the East Division, then defeated Buffalo, Philadelphia and Chicago for the Stanley Cup, placed goalie Ken Dryden, defenseman Guy Lapointe and left winger Frank Mahovlich on the NHL's first team.

Defenseman Bobby Orr and center Phil Esposito, both of the Boston Bruins, joined Mickey Redmond of the Detroit Red Wings in rounding out the team.

Tom Weiskopf Kemper Open Golf Leader

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Tom Weiskopf has two big pluses going for him.

"I'm playing about as well as I ever have," he said after his brilliant, course record matching 65 in Thursday's first round of the $200,000 Kemper Open.

The other plus—Jack Nicklaus isn't here.

Nicklaus, who scored a comfortable, front running victory over runner-up Weiskopf last week in Atlanta, isn't competing. He's the only man able to handle the streaking Weiskopf in recent weeks.

While his seven-under-par effort tied the course record at the 7,219-yard Quail Hollow Country Club layout, he needed every stroke to stay in front of youthful Lanny Wadkins. Wadkins, the Byron Nelson winner, had a 66.

At 67 were Ken Still, Mac McLendon, Bert Green, Leonard Thompson and red-headed rookie Pat Fitzsimons.

Arnold Palmer, coming off a one-month layoff, and Australian Bruce Crampton, a threetime winner this year, headed a group of more than a half dozen at 68 as the touring pros took advantage of near-perfect golfing weather to make a mockery of par.

More than half the field of 147 matched or bettered par 72 and there were 60 in sub-par figures.

Among them were 61-year-old marvel Sam Snead, 69; Lee Trevino, 70; and defending Kemper champion Doug Sanders, 71.

Gary Player, the little South African, making only his second start of the season in the United States, could do no better than 75 and must improve if he is to qualify for the final two rounds Saturday and Sunday.

There's one thing every lawn needs in spring... feeding!

It's the single most important thing you can do for any lawn in spring. And when it comes to feeding, more lawnmowers choose TURF BUILDER than any other fertilizer. Turf Builder isn't like those "flash in the pan" fertilizers that release their nutrients fast, causing surge growth and extra mowing. Instead Turf Builder feeds slowly, over a prolonged period of time. Result? Your lawn greens up. Grows denser and sturdier. And it stays that way longer too, thanks to Scotts patented Trionized bonding.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Make long-range plans so that your future is much brighter. Consulting with a business expert can be most rewarding. You can get the right answers by early evening. Think constructively.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Morning is a fine time to figure out just what your hopes and ambitions are and take steps in the right direction. You can meet good people who can be most helpful to you. Be logical.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Make sure you state your abilities when consulting with a bigwig today. Study carefully a credit matter before doing anything about it, then you can act decisively for best results.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Show that you are astute in handling whatever duties are yours, be they of a personal or business nature. Your intuition is wrong during the morning, but good later in the day.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those interesting young people who will require a good education in order to make the most of an inquisitive mind. Put it to good use in a most practical way. Your progeny will need the friendship of less practical-minded people so that this will not become a purely materialistic kind of life.

Teays Valley Music Directors Present Awards To 91 Students

Ninety-one music students received awards May 18 at the annual Music

Awards Banquet hosted by the Teays Valley Music Boosters.

Following the carry-in dinner in the TVHS cafeteria, awards were presented to students by Miss Darlene Freeman, choir director, and Fred Brobst and Drexel Poling, band directors.

First year members received a pin; second year members were presented a guard with their year of graduation for the pin; third year members were given a varsity letter and the graduating members having four years of band experience were presented a gold note mounted on a wooden plaque.

There were 41 first year choir awards, 24 second, seven third year letters and three fourth year awards given out. For the bandsmen, 35 first year awards were given along with 22 second, 14 third and 11 fourth year plaques.

Seniors honored at the banquet were: Chuck Johnson, Terry Branham, Betsy Finch, Vickie Gochenour, Mindy Lawless, Diana Pobst, Wilson Ett, Martin Firestone, Cindy Gray.

Bridget Haines, Karen Harmount, Dave Makarius, Jim Pabst, Jan Roberts, Jill Trego, Dave Archer, Bonnie Darts, Kris Dountz, Debra Gilbert, Rita Gilliam.

Clyde Gwin, Deb Helser, Steve Clark, Roxanne Toole, Kathy Trego, Loretta Vance, Deb Lowry, Liz Good, Kathy McPherson and Darlene Neff.

Gene Houser, 1972-73 president of the Music Boosters, thanked the officers for their help this past year. They were: Vice President Norma Gochenour, Secretary Kay Ervin, Treasurer Mona Lee Trego. He also thanked all the parents who had helped to make this year a success.

Brobst presented band members who took part in the European tour last summer authorized copies of the band's certificate of participation in the Coventry Music Festival in England.

Choir and band members presented all three directors with gift certificates.

TV Students Recognized In Testing

Eleven Teays Valley High School students were recognized for their scores in the statewide individual competition in the Ohio Tests of Scholastic Achievement.

Karl Snyder ranked 5th in the district and 15th in the state for high schools of comparable enrollment to Teays Valley in the English exam. Snyder also earned an 8th place rank in the district for all Ohio schools, regardless of size.

Four other students received places in the state ranking of comparably-sized schools in the central Ohio area. These were David Warner, 14th in chemistry; Mark Fillingier, honorable mention in chemistry; Nolan Hines, honorable mention in chemistry and Debbie Biller, honorable mention in English.

Placing in the district were: Cherie Wright, 16th in general science; Walter Phebus, 12th in general science; Nolan Hines, 12th in chemistry; Mark Fillingier, 10th in chemistry; David Warner, 6th in chemistry.

Patrick Wilson, honorable mention in American History; Stephanie Mesner, 19th in American History; Debbie Biller, 12th in English; Susan Anderson, 17th in senior social studies; Margaret Moody, 13th in first-year French.

Forget Watergate, Agnew Urges

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Congressmen should be worrying less about Watergate and working more on the energy shortage and similar problems, Vice President Spiro Agnew says.

Agnew added that he didn't mean to include the Senate committee investigating the bugging incident.

He described President Nixon as "a man under intense pressure...reacting absolutely in a top-flight manner."

He used the phrase "juicy morsels of gossip and accusation" to describe unproven charges in the Watergate probe and said the Republican party "is not involved, not indicted and not responsible."

Agnew spoke to about 1,500 party faithful at a $150-a-plate fund raising dinner Thursday night.

"It might be a good idea for some members of Congress," Agnew said, "to think a little bit about the amount of time they're devoting to speculations over what might eventually emerge from the Watergate investigation."

The public, he said, those "who are currently worried about the energy shortage and the gasoline problem would like to see those congressmen get to work on some of those matters rather than worrying so much about the Watergate."

The presidency is normally a high-pressure position, he said, and "the constant assaults that are coming out of the current investigations" are pyramiding those pressures.

Add "the hearsay and rumor that swirls about him" and "the picking that is being done about minor matters such as security installations at San Clemente," Agnew said, and "you have a man under intense pressure."

But Nixon, the vice president said, "is reacting absolutely in a topflight manner under the most severe fire."

He said that though some are "hoping against hope to find the corpse of the presidency...the vultures will be disappointed. The President is alive and well and just as vigorous as ever."

The turnout was about 800 less than the crowd that showed up for an Agnew speech here in 1971. That gathering at $200 a plate, brought in about $460,000, compared with about $220,000 this time.

Robert Hughes, chairman of the Cuyahoga County GOP Executive Committee, said "ticket sales went very well." He indicated he felt Watergate wasn't a factor in the lower turnout. Other party spokesmen said the crowd was smaller because 1973 is an off year in Ohio and national politics.
